MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Briefing of Senate Armed Services Committee Staffers on Soviet Strategic Programs

1. On 4 October 1984, Bob Bott and Doug Grahm, staffers on the Senate Armed Services Committee (SAS), were briefed from 0930 to 1100 in Room 2E49 by Larry Gershwin, the National Intelligence Officer for Strategic Programs. The staffers requested an update on various topics concerning Soviet weapons systems. The briefing began with a discussion of the recent spate of newspaper articles that have tended to misinterpret events. [REDACTED]

2. During the course of the briefing, Mr. Gershwin covered the Soviet submarine program, the continuation of Moscow ABM installations, and the testing of new radars. Soviet space-based ASW tests were also discussed. The briefing then turned to general coverage of Soviet missile developments, testing programs, and events that will lead to a comprehensive change in Soviet ICBM forces within a decade. [REDACTED]

For the Record:

Today I called Doug
Gram, SAS, (224-3128)
to tell him he could read NIE 11-3/8-83 at SSCI, using their copies. Gram asked to see them yesterday, and I consulted with [redacted]
ANIO/SP, who gave permission.
Don Wynnyczek, SSCI Security,
said he could make them
available to Gram. ([redacted]
and [redacted] were not in their offices)
